TWA Head Defends

WASHINGTON, Friday, June 14. (AP)—Bad weather plus wrong forecasts by both government and company experts and faulty work by ground personnel were blamed today by the department of commerce for the TWA aircraft crash of May 6 near Macon, Mo., which killed Senator Bronson Cutting of New Mexico and four others.

The report, completed after the taking of more than 907 pages of testimony, also found that five violations of air service regulations were "indicated" and contributed to the accident.

"Such violations will be filed against the company," it said.

Roper Speaks

In a statement accompanying the report, Secretary Roper said: "I am convinced that the accident was due chiefly to bad weather conditions. The two pilots, Bolton and Gresson, made every possible effort to land their passengers safely, but were unable to do so because of the prevailing fog and darkness.

"Contributory causes undoubtedly were inaccurate weather forecasts from both the U. S. weather bureau and the company meteorologist."

HERE'S WHY IT'S FLAG DAY
Proclaimed 20 Years Ago

WASHINGTON, Friday, June 14. (AP)—Exactly 158 years ago, the Continental congress decreed that the nation should have a flag with 13 stripes and 13 stars and so today is Flag Day.

It is the 20th annual official celebration of the event. President Wilson first proclaimed Flag Day in 1915.

His widow, Mrs. Woodrow Wilson, was invited to view a pageant of flags today at the Girl Scouts' "Little House."

Merriam as GOP Entry?
Perhaps So!

By ARTHUR CAYLOR

SAN FRANCISCO, Friday, June 14.—It may surprise you the least mite to know that some people are beginning to take seriously the idea of Gov. Merriam running for president next year on the republican ticket.

The Sacramento Union recently discussed the subject with wrinkled brow in an editorial which gives him an edge on Herbert Hoover and Ogden L. Mills.

There's considerable talk that the governor would like to shy his hat into the ring and see if anything happens beyond getting his head sunburned. The politically smart point out that circumstances might give him a break—so far as the nomination is concerned.

They suggest that other politicians on the republican side might not care to stick their necks out for President Roosevelt to whang upon with his ax so would cheerfully give place.

Nazis Dig for Bodies in

Reinsdorf

(Copyright, 1935, by Associated Press)

REINSDOERF, Germany, Friday, June 14.—Nazis, grime-streaked and grim, dug into the ruins of the explosion-shattered munitions works today to bring out the bodies of the dead, variously estimated to number from 10 to 1000.

Survivors of the devastating blasts, many of them suffering from shock and possessing only the clothes on their backs, streamed from the town on orders that it be evacuated.

Flames which followed the explosions late yesterday added to the destruction.

A rigid censorship, enforced by police rifles, was thrown about Reinsdorf, a huge munitions center and therefore an integral part of Germany's re-armament program.

1000 Are Killed
Nazi officials said there were 52 dead, with 75 seriously injured and 300 less seriously hurt. But unofficial estimates placed the number killed up to 1000.

The burgomaster told the Associated Press: "I think an estimate of 2000 killed is too many, but 1000 would be more accurate."

A witness to the terrifying scenes, he described it as "a hell of heat and explosions." The shock was felt over an area estimated at 675 square miles.

All forces of the Nazi government will be present in the Willard Junior High school.

Details of the event tomorrow, including the program and names of speakers, will be found on page 4.

Minimum Payments Cut
From $25 to $20 by Senate Amendment

SACRAMENTO, Friday, June 14. (AP)—The Hornblower bill, which will give California the most liberal old age pension system of any state in the union, goes to Governor Merriam today for his signature.

The assembly last night, by a vote of 59 to 6, put the finishing touches on the measure by concurring in senate amendment reducing the minimum monthly pension from $25 to $20.

The bill carries pensions ranging from $20 to $35 for needy Californians over 65 years of age who have been residents of the state for 15 years or more.

No other state has old age benefits of more than one dollar a day.

Assembly concurrence provoked a near battle on the floor, when Assemblyman Pelletier of Los Angeles termed proponents of the measure "the scum of the earth."

DEADLINE FOR BUDGET NEAR

SACRAMENTO, Friday, June 14. (AP)—The deadline for balancing California's $372,000,000 budget falls upon a strife-torn legislature at midnight tonight.

With less than 14 working hours left, the senate and assembly, racing against time, find a revenue program 30 to 40 million dollars short of meeting the anticipated expenses of the 1935-37 biennium.

The approaching crisis probably not matched in all California history, falls the shadow of Governor Merriam, economy axe in hand.

The chief executive, determined to put the state on a pay-as-you-go basis, has wanted factions of the legislature locked in bitter conflict that he will slash the budget down to expected revenues if midnight arrived without agreement upon an adequate tax program.

The assembly labored until 2 a. m. and adopted a $20,000,000 severance tax on natural gas and oil by the impressive vote of 68 to 9, but it would not budget from a deadlock over the $26,000,000 Duval bill transferring automobile property taxes from the cities and counties to the state.

Passage of both of these measures and two others, a 1 per cent real estate transfer tax and a revised truck tax, is necessary if the budget is to be kept intact.

SEEK BILL PASSAGE

New Stabilization Act to Create 'Little NRA'
For Business

WASHINGTON, Friday, June 14. (AP)—President Roosevelt today personally asked that the threatened strike in the bituminous coal industry be called off until July 1 and both union and operators' leaders agreed to recommend it to conferences of laborers tomorrow.

John L. Lewis, president of the United Mine Workers, made the announcement in the White House following a talk with the president and congressional leaders who are pressing for enactment of the Guffey bill to regulate the bituminous coal industry.

The strike has been ordered, for Monday.

"The president suggested—after canvassing the legislative situation—that in the public interest he would request the operators and miners to extend the status quo of the wage agreements in the industry until July 1 and save the country the expense and inconvenience of a suspension of work," Lewis said.

The president, the union chief added, based his request on the legislative situation and expressed hope for enactment of the Guffey coal stabilization bill to create a "little NRA" for the soft coal industry.

"D. C. Kennedy and I agreed with the president that we would recommend to our respective interests the entire acceptance of the president's suggestions," Lewis said.

Kennedy, chairman of the Appalachian joint conference, immediately sent out a notice to operators to assemble here for a conference tomorrow at 10 a. m.

Sensational charges are made in a divorce suit started here late yesterday by Walter J. Hill, owner of a large ranch at Midway City and son of the late James J. Hill, "empire builder" and for many years head of the Great Northern railroad.

Naming his wife, Mrs. Mildred Richardson Hill, and the First Trust company of St. Paul, Minn., as defendants, Mr. Hill is seeking, in addition to a divorce, return of two agreements whereby he gave his wife a monthly income of $1250, and created a $65,000 trust fund to be paid her in the event they were living, as man and wife, at the end of five years. The five-year period ends June 25.

The Hills were married May 18, 1927, in Livingston, Mont., where a large portion of the Hill fortune, of which he was one of the principal beneficiaries, was created. They separated June 25, 1930, the same day he entered into the two agreements with which he hoped to end marital difficulties between himself and his wife, his complaint asserts.

Among the more sensational charges in the suit is the allegation that as soon as the two agreements had been entered into, Mrs. Hill moved to Seattle and took a house in the exclusive Broadmoor section. The house, Mr. Hill alleges, was furnished at a cost of $27,000, before she assertedly moved into it with Roland Buckley. Later Mr. Hill was sued by a Seattle furniture store for a balance due on the furnishings of the home, and was forced to settle a judgment of more than $20,000.

Mr. Hill charges he has suffered much humiliation through escapades of his wife which have become so notorious that other residents of the district in which she lives refer to the mas "The scandal of Broadmoor."

Within 90 days of the time they were married, Mr. Hill charges, his wife left their Montana home, ostensibly to take her son by a former marriage to an eastern school. During her absence, the husband charges, she associated with William Sussman, furniture salesman and a former friend of hers. Upon her return, Mr. Hill charges, she wrote Sussman a letter referring to the mas "The scandal of Broadmoor."

Supervisor West Says

There was rejoicing at Huntington Beach today among those who favor exploitation of the state tideland oil pool off the city's coast by whipstock drilling from Standard Oil company property along the bill.

The state senate this morning swamped the rival proposition for drilling from islands when, by a 32-to-2 vote, it refused to concur in assembly amendments to the swing bill, an Associated Press dispatch today stated.

Senator Swing, San Bernardino, author of the measure to which the amendment was attached, made an overnight switch and moved that the senate not concur. Last night when he had the bill set for a special order for today, he told the senate that he would move for concurrence.

All eyes immediately turned to Governor Frank C. Merriam, whose signature to the whipstock bill would be the final victory in the long battle waged by Huntington Beach leaders for a share of the royalties from the $550,000,000 oil deposit.

Wants Referendum
Supervisor N. E. West of Laguna Beach, who has been at Sacramento working on behalf of the island drilling measure, said today in a telephone conversation with The Journal that he was certain the people of the state will insist on bringing the tideland oil question to a referendum. He

INDICT WEST POINT GRAD

Roosevelt Threat Revealed

WASHINGTON, Friday, June 14. (AP)—Ira Bashin, who was graduated from West Point two years ago, was indicted today by a District of Columbia grand jury for threatening to bomb the White House.

The former army officer, now serving time in the district jail for disorderly conduct, has been pronounced insane by district alienists. His indictment, the first one here for making threats against the president, presumably was returned to facilitate his commitment to St. Elizabeth's hospital.

Secret service operatives turned the case over to the United States attorney general after Bashin wrote a threatening letter to President Roosevelt last May 30.

BULLETIN

WASHINGTON, Friday, June 14. (AP)—The president late today signed the resolution passed by congress extending the NRA.

WASHINGTON, Friday, June 14. (AP)—Racing against a Sunday night deadline, the house today speedily agreed to senate amendments to the resolution extending an abbreviated NRA to next April 1 and sent the measure to President Roosevelt for his signature.

Passage came after only 40 minutes of listless debate. The Republicans apparently conceding that their attempts to defeat the huge house democratic majority would be unsuccessful. The vote was 33 to 30.

When the special resolution, accepting the senate amendment to the measure was called up, Representative Michener (R., Mich.) remarked:

"Unless I am misinformed, only one rule like this has ever been brought before the house. This is a rare type of gag rule."

The Harrison-Borah anti-trust amendment, said Representative Jenkins (R., Ohio) "improves the bill."

"We republicans contend," he asserted, "that the NRA either should be continued or allowed to die and not extend in this half-dead shape."

Jenkins added that the "president will never live long enough to stop wishing that he could withdraw the remarks he made about a constitutional amendment" replacing NRA.

OLD LAW AID TO KIDNAPER

(Copyright, 1935, by Associated Press)

TACOMA, Friday, June 14. (AP) A principle of old English law—that a wife is the mere chattel of her husband—was cited by Tacoma attorneys today as likely to save Mrs. Harmon M. Waley from a life sentence for kidnapping George Weyerhaeuser, 9.

Mrs. Waley, 19, and her young husband remained incommunicado in the Thurston county jail at Olympia today awaiting the calling of a federal grand jury to indict them for the $200,000 extortion "smatch."

A young boy, believed to be young Weyerhaeuser, entered the jail here today accompanied by department of justice agents, presumably to identify Mr. and Mrs. Waley as his kidnappers.

The lull in the sensational case continued pending capture of the Waleys' accused accomplice, William Mahan, and the calling of a federal grand jury to indict the three.

Meanwhile Tacoma speculators on the outcome, citing the bit of middle ages jurisprudence which is an important part of modern federal law—that a wife has no will of her own.

It holds in effect that when a wife takes part in a crime with her husband, she is assumed to be acting under his domination—that Margaret Thulin Waley helped secret George, helped take him into Idaho, and helped pass part of the $200,000 ransom money, under her husband's duress.

CHINA SENDING SPECIAL EMISSARY TO U. S.; CRISIS GROWS

WANG SEEN AS LIKELY ENVOY ON MISSION

Great Britain and U. S. To Keep Garrisons Stationed in China

SHANGHAI, Friday, June 14. (AP)—China was reported planning today to send a special emissary to the United States and England on "a difficult and delicate mission."

Closer contact with those countries on matters in the far East was described as an object of the visit. The report also circulated in Nanking, seat of the nationalist government.

Officials refused to discuss the project but C. T. Wang, former foreign minister who was mentioned as a likely envoy, conferred with government leaders in Nanking yesterday.

Japanese denied statements of Chinese leaders that Japanese officers had presented fresh demands which the Nationalist government refused to meet.

Increased tension was reported from Peiping, where Chinese officials said the country faced "the gravest crisis since the Shanghai war of 1932."

ENGLAND TO KEEP TROOPS IN TIENTSIN

LONDON, Friday, June 14. (AP)—Authoritative sources said today that Great Britain would refuse to consider the withdrawal of her troops based at Tientsin under the Boxer protocol, no matter what measures Japan takes in North China.

British officials expressed surprise at unofficial reports reaching here that the United States was contemplating the withdrawal of her Tientsin garrison, while officials in Washington denied the reports.

Expressing surprise at the rumors, they said no consideration ever had been given to a removal of the Tientsin garrison.

The 15th infantry, the only American troops garrisoned on foreign soil, is stationed at China's great northern port as a protection for American interests there and to insure an open avenue from the sea to Peiping, where the American legation is located.

NEW DEMANDS ARE MADE TO CHINA

TIENTSIN, China, Friday, June 14. (AP)—Japanese army officers placed a new series of demands before Chinese authorities of Chahar province today as replacements for Japanese garrisons in Tientsin and Peiping began arriving from the border.

A recent incident at Changpei, where a Chinese magistrate detained and questioned a party of Japanese army officers, could be settled peacefully only if the conditions are met, a Japanese spokesman said.

The report found the plane did not carry "sufficient fuel and oil to fly 45 minutes in addition to the time required for the flight to the next scheduled stop or refueling station."

"Rather," Roper said, "the tanks of the 'Sky Chief' contained only a 27-minute reserve fuel supply when the crash occurred."

"When the fact was available at Kansas City that the ceiling was lower than the authorized minimum which was while the plane was in the vicinity of Wichita, the Kansas City dispatcher should have grounded the ship at Wichita for fuel and further instructions.

"Instead, he allowed this plane to proceed into weather conditions which required a flight of greater distance than permitted landing with the required 45 minute reserve fuel supply."

T. W. A. HEAD DEFENDS PLANE EQUIPMENT

NEW YORK, Friday, June 14. (AP)—Jack Frye, president of Transcontinental and Western Air today defended the equipment of the air liner which crashed near Macon, Mo., on May 6 and the plane personnel and attributed the accident to "false" weather reports by the bureau of air commerce at Kirksville, Mo.

In a statement issued at his office, Frye said, upon learning of the findings of the department of commerce which discovered "indications" that the company was at fault in the accident which claimed the lives of Senator Bronson Cutting and four others:

"Transcontinental and Western Air officials are amazed at the reported findings of the accident board of the bureau of air commerce as to the causes of the air-plane accident on May 6, 1935, near Atlanta, Mo.

"The evidence at the public hearing of the bureau of air commerce clearly showed that Transcontinental and Western Air was in no wise at fault in the handling of this flight and that the accident occurred because of no failure of equipment or company personnel."

FISH PRESERVE BILL OKEHED

Orange county coast cities and organizations today had virtually won their long fight to create a fish preserve off this shoreline. Last night the bill creating the preserve and prohibiting commercial purse seine fishing along several miles of the coast, passed the state senate.

The measure already had gained approval of the assembly. Word of the senate's action came today to Dan Mulholland of San Clemente from Leslie Kimmel of Laguna Beach, who has been at Sacramento on behalf of the bill, representing the Orange County Coast Association. Senator N. T. Edwards of Orange will take the measure to Governor Merriam personally to request his signature.

Firemen, police, storm troopers and workers attempted to get at some 30 bodies reported to be lying in the midst of ashes where a factory stood yesterday.

Otto Heidenreith, Nazi district leader, speaking for the government, said:

said he believed that in such a vote the people would block the whipstock project because the Standard Oil company is the only one which could drill under terms of this program.

The whipstock bill provides a 3 percent royalty for the city and 16 2-3 percent for the state.

The island bill, under which a lease was proposed for the Gilmore Exploration company, would give the state 20 per cent until drilling costs were returned, after which the rate would be 30 per cent. The city would get 3 per cent and Orange county would receive a like rate.

Olson Opposes It

The amendment ran into stiff opposition in the senate especially from Senator Olson, Los Angeles, who declared he was against the amendment and also against a previous measure on Huntington Beach oil drilling because they do not call for a sufficient return to the state.

"The beaches of Orange county around Huntington Beach have already been spoiled by drilling," said Olson, "and now that the damage has been done the state should get all the revenue it can. I favor a royalty of at least 50 per cent."

"I do not favor this bill any more than I do the measure the senate passed permitting the Standard Oil company to drill slantwise at Huntington Beach on a royalty of at least 16 2-3 per cent. 'I expect a referendum will be started against the bill favoring the Standard Oil and also against this Swing bill if it is ever passed in its present shape.'"

"No Edwards Vote"

Supervisor West will return home tonight. Mr. West reported that the vote in the senate today was a roll call, and that Senator N. T. Edwards of Orange did not vote.

The controversy over drilling the tidelands has been one of the most strenuous in local oil history. Proponents of the island proposition have contended that the whipstock bill merely is a gift to the Standard Oil company. Mr. West recently said that the situation threatens to become another "Teapot Dome scandal."

Royalty $100,000

Mayor T. B. Talbert of Huntington Beach and his supporters have fought determinedly against the island proposition, claiming such drilling would ruin the beaches with oil. It also has been claimed that the people of the state would prevent such a project by bringing the matter to a referendum vote.

The city's royalty under the whipstock bill would give it approximately $100,000 a year, and as a result visitors have been entertained for a tax-free community.

Many Telegrams Sent

While the main battleground over the tideland oil was at Sacramento, repercussions from the local campaign were still rumbling in Orange county and particularly Huntington Beach. Mayor Talbert, against whom recall petitions are being circulated, said that more than 1500 telegrams were sent to the state capital within the last two days urging adoption of the whipstock drilling bill and pleading for defeat of the island measure.

Today's reports said that 125 signatures have been obtained on the petitions for recall of Mayor Talbert, Councilmen Anthony Toppatt and J. H. Marion. City Attorney Ray Overacker said that 380 qualified voters must sign the documents to force the recall ballot. If these are obtained, an election must be called not more than 45 nor less than 35 days later.

Branded as Politics

Another development today was the report that several persons claim to have been offered $10 a day to circulate the petitions and that they refused.

Mayor Talbert's friends say that the recall is a political move on the part of oil interests which favor the island drilling plan and opposed the whipstock program. The island drilling provision is

U. S. WAR ON CRIME URGED

BILOXI, Miss., Friday, June 14. (AP)—Unified war on crime by the various states through elimination of legal barriers raised by boundary lines was proposed today to the conference of the nation's governors.

MORE ABOUT HILL SUIT

ter in which she said she "had not gotten as much out of Hill as she expected, but that when she had, she intended to leave and return to him (Sussman)."

Faced Many Suits

A history of several divorce and separate maintenance suits filed by the wife is included in the complaint. It was only a year after their marriage, he asserts, that his wife began a suit for separate maintenance. This suit obtained such publicity in Montana newspapers that Hill was humiliated and shamed, he asserts.

The suit was dismissed but the path of married life still was not smooth. On two other occasions Mrs. Hill began divorce suits which later were dismissed, according to the complaint, because they were without grounds.

On June 25, 1930, with another divorce action pending in Montana, Mr. Hill and his wife entered into the two agreements, he alleges. In the first he agreed that so long as his wife remained with him and maintained a home, he would pay her $1000 monthly as a marital allowance, and would pay her $250 monthly toward household expenses, according to his complaint.

He to Pay Bills

Other asserted provisions were that Mr. Hill would select the place for their home, his wife would select the furnishings, he would pay the rent, utility bills and wages of all servants, settle debts totaling $8000 created by his wife, and give her an automobile. Both parties agreed to dismiss charges and counter charges contained in the divorce action pending.

The second asserted agreement a rider on the Swing finance bill. Late yesterday the assembly refused to reconsider its previous vote of approval on the measure. The matter was sent back to the senate for concurrence. The rider provides for 70 acres of island drilling by the Gilmore Exploration company, affiliated with the Jergins interests of Long Beach. Seventeen lobbyists of the latter group were reported to have been busy on the assembly floor yesterday.

Friends of Mayor Talbert also claim that the recall movement is an attempt to disrupt the Huntington Beach municipal government and prevent it from obtaining a 3 per cent royalty from oil drilled under the whipstock proposal.

called for depositing with the First Trust company of St. Paul securities valued by Mr. Hill at $65,000. In the event he and his wife were living together and no action for divorce or separate maintenance was pending at the end of five years, she was to receive the amount held in trust. If he instituted divorce proceedings the trust company was authorized to pay Mrs. Hill the $65,000. In the event Mr. Hill died before expiration of the five years his wife was to receive $65,000 and have the amount deducted from her share of his estate.

Wants Agreement Back

Mr. Hill is requesting the court to order Mrs. Hill to return the two original copies of the agreement on the grounds they are null and void because of her actions. He also is asking the trust company be instructed to return the securities, less that portion which his wife, with his consent, assigned to Frederick and Nelson, a Seattle department store.

Among other charges hurled at his wife by Mr. Hill is that she is living in a lavish and extravagant manner far above his ability to pay, causing him to be sued and threatened with suits.

Mr. Hill is represented by Charles Swanner, former Santa Ana city attorney.

ESTATE TO WIDOW

Bequeathing his entire estate, estimated as valued at $15,000 to his widow, the will of Joy J. Richart, former Fullerton man, was filed for probate in superior court yesterday. The widow, Mrs. Mabel E. Richart, was named as executrix in the will.

FIRE FIGHTERS PLENTIFUL

There are a lot of folks in Orange county who want to fight forest fires. Too many, in fact, according to State Forest Ranger Joseph A. Scherman of Orange.

Yesterday newspapers published the fact that Mr. Scherman was organizing fire suppression crews.

Mr. Scherman was swamped with applicants. They kept telephoning to him far into the night.

Today he said it will be impossible to receive any more applications. He already has an eligible list far larger than he needs.

RANCH OWNER IS SENTENCED FOR PART IN COCK FIGHT

Arthur Keene, arrested by sheriff's officers Sunday in a raid on a cock fight gathering at the Keene ranch in Telegraph canyon, was convicted by Justice of the Peace Spence in Fullerton yesterday afternoon of aiding and abetting a cockfight. He was sentenced to pay a $25 fine or spend 12½ days in jail. Stay of execution for five days was granted and J. F. Conkey, Keene's attorney, filed verbal notice of appeal.

CHURCH PLANNING BARBECUE, SHOOT AND FESTIVAL

Plans are nearing completion for the grand opening of the barbecue, merchandise shoot and summer festival to be held on Sunday, June 23 at the Twenty Ranch Gun club, one-mile southeast of Santa Ana, sponsored by Saint Anne's church.

The shooting, skeet, trap and splatter board, begins at 9 a. m., and will have many of the crack shots of Southern California participating.

A baby beef barbecue dinner will be served all the afternoon by Chef Tony Barrios.

A colorful array of varied booths will be filled with prizes and a fish pond will keep the children busy.

A 50-piece juvenile band from South Gate will furnish music and various athletic contests will be part of the afternoon's program.

BULLETIN TELLS OF NON-DEGREE FARMING COURSE

Bulletins announcing non-degree courses in agriculture by the University of California at the university farm in Davis are available at the office of Farm Advisor Harold Wahlberg.

According to Mr. Wahlberg, the courses are so arranged that those who can spend only one or two semesters in college may secure intensive practical training in certain phases of agriculture.

High school graduates, with minor deficiencies for university admission, are given an opportunity through the non-degree courses to make up the required work without undue loss of time and with continuity of residence in the university. High school graduates will be admitted irrespective of age. Applicants who are not high school graduates must be at least 18 years old and must show evidence of being able to pursue with profit the instruction offered, Mr. Wahlberg explained.

Matching accessories—fashion decrees them. And one of her favorites this summer is the crocheted beret. This one—smart in its simplicity, the ribs offering the decoration—will go well with your summer wardrobe. It is one of those berets, too, that is a dressy size, yet comfortable for all the outdoor activities that summer brings. The purse, even in form, repeats the design of the beret. And it's a roomy one too! You could have initials placed in the center space—a very smart touch! Make these accessories in string or wool—either is effective.

In pattern 5315 you will find complete instructions for making the set shown; an illustration of it and of the stitches needed; material requirements.

To obtain this pattern send 10 cents in stamps or coin (coin preferred) to The Santa Ana Journal, 117 E. Fifth St., Santa Ana, Calif.

WORK OF EXTENDING NEWPORT HARBOR JETTIES BEGINS TODAY

GIANT DERRICK HANDLES HUGE BOULDERS

Mammoth Task Due to Be Finished About November 1

NEWPORT BEACH, Friday, June 14.—Work was started today on placing 155,000 tons of mammoth rock slabs and boulders on the extensions of the two jetties at the entrance to Newport Harbor by the Rohl-Connelly company. Many of the rocks weigh more than 10 tons each, and are put in place by a special huge derrick barge which arrived here this week solely for this job.

The work will be completed November 1, according to Captain R. E. Cruise, United States army engineer, and Roscoe Hildebrandt, resident government engineer, in charge of operations.

During the past few days four barge loads of the rock have been brought here from Catalina island. The jetty program started today will cost $500,000 and is a part of the $1,835,000 federal improvement project at Newport Harbor.

The large rock is known technically as "Class B" layer, and will build both the eastern and western jetties from a point 10 feet below the low tide mark to 15 feet above. Work is now being carried on at the 950-foot extension of the eastern jetty where a total of 80,000 tons of the boulders will be placed. The 750-foot extension to the western jetty will receive 59,000 tons of material, and 16,000 tons more of the rocks will be used in repair work on the present 2000-foot basic western jetty.

Pay'n Takit Offers These Low Prices

For many years it has been a Pay'n Takit policy to sell quality merchandise at the lowest possible prices EVERY DAY in the week. This policy is still being adhered to today. Pay'n Takit does not believe in the practice of offering a few items below cost or in offering special combination deals that compel a customer to buy other merchandise she does not want in order to get low prices on a few items. These practices are used in many cases to cover up exorbitant profits on certain merchandise or to unload inferior quality merchandise.

Pay'n Takit Stores have not reduced employees' salaries nor increased hours of store employees.

For your protection as a buyer of food supplies, we urge you to thoroughly check the prices listed on this page—compare them, if you like, with those quoted elsewhere. Remember, all of these prices, except where noted, are available EVERY DAY in the week at the Pay'n Takit store in your neighborhood. Start today—shop at Pay'n Takit—note the saving that you make.

Special Attention to Children

We urge you to send the children to Pay'n Takit for your daily needs. Their purchases are carefully selected for them and change is placed in a special envelope to prevent loss.

TELLS GROWTH OF VALENCIA ORANGES

Growth of Valencia oranges has been satisfactory during the past month, although it has not equaled that for the same period last year, according to a report by D. D. Waynick of the Association Laboratories at Anaheim.

Fruit on the outside of the trees grew .033 inches in diameter in the 30-day period, while inside oranges grew .046 inches. Growth of outside fruit last year was .043 inches, while growth of inside fruit was .060 inches in the corresponding period, the report showed.

Measurements made between June 1 and 9 show that outside fruit has an average diameter of 2.614 inches and packs 217 to the box, while inside fruit has an average diameter of 2.545, packing 233 to the box.

Although the rate of growth in the past month has been less than in 1934, the oranges at present are larger than last year, when outside fruit had a diameter of 2.596 and inside fruit measured 2.479 inches.

The averages are based on measurements of fruit in 16 different orchards.

CAPPER SWINGS TO LIBERALISM

By HERBERT PLUMMER

WASHINGTON, Friday, June 14.—An analysis of the vote in the senate on the Norris bill designed to strengthen the Tennessee Valley Authority again brings to the fore the liberal attitude toward "new deal" legislation being displayed by Capper of Kansas, a republican.

The slight, gray-haired senator from Kansas, serving his third term, comes up for reelection next year. For one running on a regular republican ticket in a presidential year his support of various "new deal" policies has aroused speculation.

Consider with whom he cast his lot on the TVA measure: His name is to be found alongside such liberals of his party as Norris of Nebraska, Johnson of California, Nye of North Dakota, and the Progressive La Follette of Wisconsin and the Farmer-Laborite Shipstead of Minnesota.

Renomination Fight Seen
Political gossip in Washington has it that Capper's liberal tendencies are finding a reaction among the members of his party in Kansas and the middle west.

John M. Hamilton, national committeeman from Kansas, a prime mover in the midwest conference of republicans from 10 states scheduled to meet in Springfield, Ill., in June, has aroused the interest of politicians by his announced intention to exclude certain republicans from the so-called "grass roots" gathering.

Hamilton's move to restrict the delegates to the Springfield meeting to "real" republicans who have opposed the "new deal" is interpreted here by politicians as a probable effort to oppose the Kansas senator's renomination.

The man most prominently mentioned as his opponent is Governor Alf Landon of Kansas.

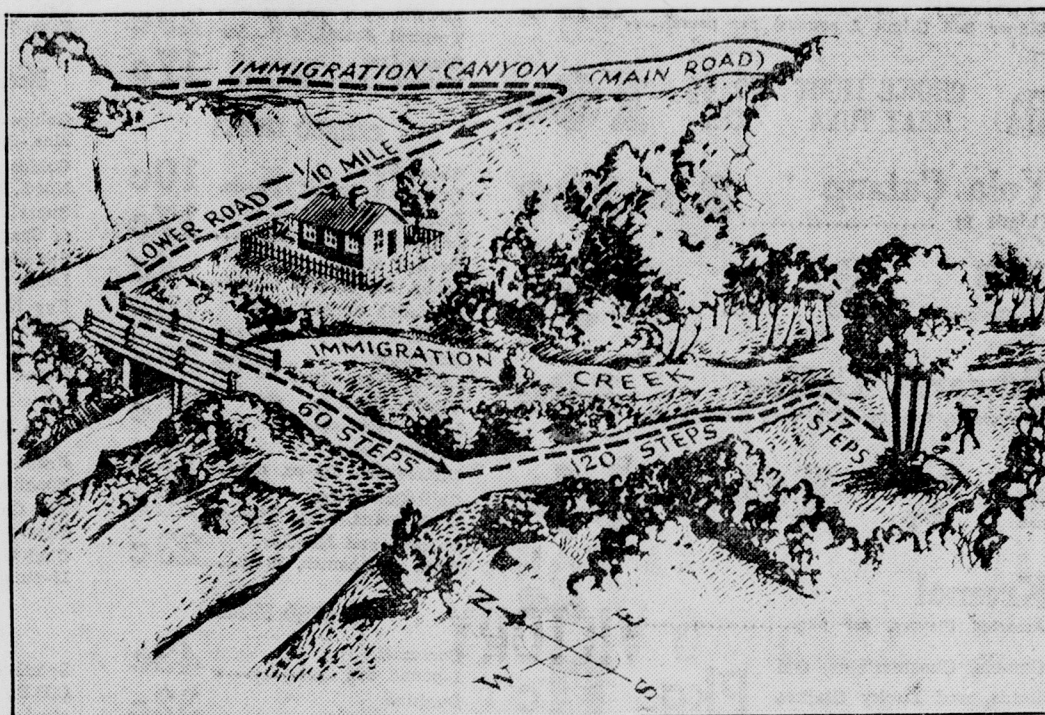

No 'Hybrids' Wanted
Rumor has it the strategy will be to have Kansas put forward Governor Landon as its favorite son for the republican presidential nomination next year as a move to increase his prestige. The idea and hope among his supporters is that in this manner Landon will attain sufficient strength to give

WALEYS FACE TRIAL BUT NOT CAMERA AT TACOMA

TRAIL TO $90,700 OF KIDNAP RANSOM MONEY

Above is a step by step diagram indicating the direction alleged to have been given the authorities by Harmon M. Waley and his wife which led to the spot where $90,700 of the Weyerheuser ransom money had been buried. (Associated Press photo.)

SOVIET SCIENTISTS PLAN ROCKET HOP

MOSCOW, Friday, June 14. (AP)—The official soviet stratosphere committee has sponsored designs for a rocket planned to reach an altitude of 25 miles—higher than man-made instruments have ever ascended.

Automatically, when the rocket reaches its ceiling, a parachute is to open to permit its descent intact with instruments that are to take readings in the stratosphere.

The rocket is to use liquid fuel. Soviet Russia's scientists have defied ridicule by taking the stand that interplanetary communication can be achieved through development of these rockets.

Capper a real contest for the senate.

Those who cling to this view, point to a recent statement of Senator Dickinson of Iowa in support of their stand.

"If the republican party," says Dickinson, "is to aggressively expose the weakness of the 'new deal' and its shortcomings, these conferences must be dominated by republicans and not hybrids."

What disposition is made of the Capper issue is regarded as highly significant of what may happen in the future of G. O. P.

IS SCHOOL OUT? YOU BET!

And Is Raymond's Dog Glad!

"Am I glad school's out? Boy, I'll say." That's how Raymond Ross, seventh grader at Willard Junior High school feels about June 14.

"No more arithmetic, history, or English for a whole summer. I don't mind wood-shop and things like that; but gosh, the rest of it's awful."

Mitzi, his 2-year-old fox terrier, was glad, too, for now it will have someone to play with. Several times the dog has made the long trot, following Raymond's bicycle from his home at 2421 Oakmont to the Willard school, because it didn't like to be alone. More frequently, however, it's tagged along after Raymond's little sister, Virginia, who goes to the closer Hoover school.

"Mitzi just waits around until lunch time and begs for something to eat," said Virginia. "She surely does like the kids."

Mitzi especially likes a frolic at the beach, Raymond said.

"She'll go out along with the rest of us and doesn't mind if the waves come over her. Of course Mitzi likes to swim in the bay better."

The dog can retrieve a ball but is more interested in bringing a bone back, its owners admitted.

During vacation, Raymond plans to work in his garden and go to the beach at times.

"July 6, we're all going on a trip to the Sierras. Well, I don't know if we'll take Mitzi along, or not. We're all decided but Mother."

DOOMED COLONEL TO TRAIN TROOPS

ATHENS, Friday, June 14. (AP)—Although he is under sentence of death from the Greek government, Colonel Bakirtzis has just been offered a new appointment. He is able to accept it because it does not involve his return to Greece.

The colonel has been invited by the Belgian military mission, which is organizing Abyssinia's new army, to join the Ethiopian general staff. He is at present in Bulgaria, but is expected to go to Addis Ababa shortly.

PRINCE OF WALES GETS NEW PLANE

LONDON, Friday, June 14. (AP)—The Prince of Wales has bought a new 160-mile-an-hour airplane, the finest he has had, but he still is a back-seat pilot by royal command.

The prince for years has done a good part of his traveling by air and is said to be a competent pilot, often steering his private craft for hours at a time. He never has been permitted to fly solo, being accompanied always by

The Merry-Go-Round

But when these men were canvassed privately by labor leaders, it was found that seven of them were for the bill and wanted it to come to a vote in the house.

CRITIC
FRANK KNOX, Chicago publisher and potential republican candidate against Franklin Roosevelt, tells a story on a visit he paid at the White House.

Knox has been bitterly critical of Roosevelt and his policies. Therefore, he expected that the president would be cold and distant. But he was just the opposite.

"It made me feel a little foolish," Knox said afterward. "To illustrate one point he wanted to make with Roosevelt, Knox took out an editorial he had published which was especially critical. He halfway held his breath, expecting the President to hit the ceiling."

Instead, Roosevelt smiled, said: "Well, that's all right." Knox went away not quite sure whether Roosevelt had been a swell sport or extremely clever.

DEADLINE
THE approaching deadline of July 1 is a date which Administration leaders are watching with increasing uneasiness.

Reason for this apprehension is that unless Congress speeds up the legislative mills several important New Deal laws will expire automatically.

The laws facing death are: "Nuisance" taxes producing $400,000,000 in Federal revenue. This measure has not yet even been taken under consideration by the Senate finance committee.

Excise taxes on copper, oil, lumber and coal also untouched by the Senate.

The temporary Federal bank deposit insurance system under which a maximum of $5000 in bank deposits is guaranteed. Provision to continue this deposit insurance on a permanent basis is contained in Title 1 of the Administration's Central Bank Bill. This was approved by the House weeks ago.

But because of his bitter hostility to the central bank features of the bill, Senator Carter Glass has stalled it in committee, hoping to force the President to agree to sidetrack them.

This the President has refused to do. As a result, only two weeks remain before the guarantee of bank deposits throughout the nation lapses.

BARP RETURNS TO MARKET

Back in Santa Ana after an absence of a year, Guy Barp has again taken over management of the Main Drive-in Market, Washington and Main streets. Tomorrow night at a formal opening he will greet all his old friends.

Mr. Barp has planned a program of entertainment that will include the Swiss Echo Yodelers who have been heard here in several engagements. The program will start at 5 p. m.

It was just a year ago that Mr. Barp leased his market to the Continental Grocery and left for a visit to his home in Switzerland and a tour of Europe. Ten days ago he returned to Santa Ana and resumed management of the market. Since that time business has increased 40 percent, he said.

"It is indeed gratifying to me," he said today, "to know that my many friends are rejoicing at my return. It was really at their insistence that I took over the market. I am glad to be back in Santa Ana and will try and merit the welcome I have received by giving my patrons the best merchandise and courteous service that is possible. It takes a trip to Europe to make one appreciate Santa Ana."

Since taking over the market, Mr. Barp has reorganized the place, enlarging the grocery department and has announced that in the future the meat department will be managed by Charles F. Davis.

Reasonable prices for quality merchandise will prevail in the store and the prices will be the same every day in the week, including Sunday, he said. Standard merchandise for the shopper who is seeking economy is also carried in stock. As in the past the store will carry a fine line of imported goods and delicacies.

For greater service the market will remain open until 10 p. m. daily including Sunday and all holidays, with parking facilities offered all shoppers.

PRESCRIPTION FOR MAN IS MADE UP

LONDON, Friday, June 14. (AP)—C. E. M. Joad, economist and scientist, and Dr. T. E. Lawson, eminent physician, have agreed that the prescription for "one man" is:

Enough water to fill a 10-gallon barrel.

Enough fat for seven bars of soap.

Carbon for 9,000 lead pencils.

Phosphorus for 2,200 matches.

Iron for one medium-sized nail.

Lime enough to whitewash a chicken coop.

Small quantities of magnesium and sulphur.

"Take these ingredients, combine them in the right proportions, the right way and the result, apparently, is a man," said Joad in a recent lecture at London university.

NAPOLION RELICS FETCH BIG SUMS

PARIS, Friday, June 14. (AP)—Everything the great Napoleon touched turns to gold nowadays. His relics, of which there seems to be an inexhaustible supply, continue to fetch high prices at auction.

A porcelain plate showing the Empress Marie Louise guiding the footsteps of her infant son, the King of Rome, by means of the scarlet sash of the Legion of Honor, was bought at a recent sale by the Museum of the Legion of Honor for $1,200.

A shotgun, given by the Little Corporal to one of his friends, found a buyer for the same price and four dinner plates from a set used at his army headquarters brought $1,666.

OFFICIALS MUST TRAIN
CHINKIANG, China (AP)—All officials of Kiangsu province, except those who are disabled or more than 50 years old, must take daily physical exercise of some kind, says a recent order of General Chiang Kalshek.

his personal pilot, Lieut. Edward Fielden.

The new machine is a twin-engine biplane, with fuel capacity sufficient for non-stop journeys anywhere within the British Isles. There are six comfortable arm chairs in the cabin, with a writing desk and cocktail bar.

ENEMY'S KISS by Evelyn M. Winch

SYNOPSIS: A telegram, supposedly from her father, has sent Alison Rede scurrying to meet him at a house in the country. He is not there, and Alison sees a horrible person, from whom she runs in terror. She runs into a much less horrible person, however, who helps her search the house. They find nothing. Alison thinks it very queer that her father, about to re-marry should take such a shabby house anyway.

CHAPTER VI.
DOUBT

"But all the doors were locked!" Alison said.

"True," replied the stranger. "But he may have left by the pantry window while we were down in the cellar."

Alison smiled.

"You know, you're an extraordinarily comforting person!"

"Good! Then let's assume that little Herbert's gone. What about getting ourselves some coffee?"

"I'll go and see if I can find some," agreed Alison.

"Come on, then."

Her shaken self-respect was still sore. She looked at him and said quickly: "You needn't come. I'm all right now, honestly."

"I know you are but I'd rather," she gave way meekly, a little surprised at yielding, for she was by no means a meek person; but there was a note of authority in his voice which was not easily defied. A search of the kitchen yielded one small crust of stale bread which had been sampled and rejected by mice, an assortment of empty gin bottles and a strong smell of cheese. The old stove was empty and the only kettle had a large hole in the bottom.

"Nothing doing," his laughter had a happy, friendly ring to it but now he drew no answering smile from her, for Alison was looking at the big white clock upon the wall.

"It's past twelve . . ."

"You shouldn't worry," he argued. "Your father's probably hung up on the road."

"He'd have let me know," Alison was positive on that point.

"How could he? These country telegraph offices shut early."

"He could have telephoned."

"He admitted that by his silence. After a moment's thought said: 'Look here, where does your father live—I mean as a rule? Couldn't he get through to him?'"

They went into the kitchen, where a telephone stood on a table, knee-hole desk. Alison, dialing O, thought that she had never seen quite such uninteresting furniture as there was in this house.

Even this piece, quite good in shape, with its double row of deep drawers, was spoilt by being made in a cheap imitation of old oak.

There was no ringing tone. She pressed down the rest and tried once more; a dead line.

"It's not working," she put down the receiver slowly, staring at the young man with wide and troubled eyes.

"Hm." He looked again at her anxious face and suggested: "He may have wired to put you off, you know, or tell you that he couldn't get here and the post office couldn't have delivered the message."

"That's true!" She seized on the stray hope.

"Your father's probably peacefully asleep by now, thinking you've had his wire," he said, as they went back down the kitchen passage.

"I hadn't thought of that," she admitted. And with a smile, "You know you are truly a comforting person!"

"My job!"

"What do you do then?" She was curious to know; she could not quite place him. But he did not seem to hear and before she could repeat the question he said: "By the way, it might be a sound idea to tell me your name."

"Rede, Alison Rede."

"Mine's Guy—Western." There was a pause between the two words as if he had hesitated to tell her and she looked at him with sudden curiosity.

"Do you live down here?"

"Why?"

"I only wondered," explained Alison. "Whether I could telephone from your house."

SCHUMANN-HEINK TO NOTE BIRTHDAY AT KIN'S WEDDING

CORONADO, Calif., Friday, June 14. (AP)—Tomorrow Mme. Ernestine Schumann-Heink, war mother, opera singer and now a movie actress, will observe her 74th birthday by attending the marriage of her granddaughter and namesake to Henry Patterson Rumble, ensign, of Philadelphia.

The farflung Schumann-Heink family has gathered here at the diva's mansion for the ceremony, and the great contralto has confessed she hopes to "smash" into the church where the marriage will be held and "surprise" young Ernestine Schumann-Heink by singing in her honor.

ROAD'S CHANGE IS DISCUSSED

ANAHEIM, Friday, June 14.—

Possibility of a change in the recently-completed Harbor boulevard from Anaheim to Costa Mesa was discussed at a meeting of the chamber of commerce yesterday, with Secretary George Reid instructed to contact the state highway commission in regard to removal of two right-angled turns as the boulevard joins Ocean avenue east of Garden Grove.

It was agreed by members that removal of the two turns, one as the boulevard turns west on Ocean avenue and one as it again turns south after one-fourth mile, would alleviate traffic troubles. No estimate on cost of the work was given.

Announcement of annual election of six members of the board of directors was made at the meeting, with voting to continue until June 17. Outgoing officers are Robert Easton, Leonard Evans, Fred Robins, Charles Pearson, Harry Pearson and the late O. E. Steward. Directors remaining in office for the next year are W. A. Johnston, E. M. Keath, Lotus H. Loudon, O. H. Renner, A. C. Rutcel, and Frank Tausch.

SAILOR POOR LAND NAVIGATOR, HITS BUS ON MOTORCYCLE

HUNTINGTON BEACH, Friday, June 14.—Sailors can find their way around on ships better than on motorcycles, it was indicated at 4:50 a. m. here today when Gordon E. Smith of the U. S. S. California smashed his cycle into the rear end of a Greyhound bus parked at the intersection of East First street and Ocean boulevard.

Mr. Smith was rushed to Dr. L. S. Whittaker by Patrolmen Jack Tinsley and Gene Belishe, and was all right after a few stitches were made in his head. The motorcycle was demolished, and a deep dent was made in the bus.

Alison discovers something new about the hairless man tomorrow.

"Six miles at midnight in that?" He pointed to the window where the rain was beating steadily. "You'd end up with pneumonia."

"I shouldn't. Anyway, I'd rather—" She could not put into words that deep, uncomfortable conviction that something must be far wrong.

While the I-told-you-so's are filling the air from all sides while we are wondering why we didn't back up our own hunches as expressed herein during the past week or so, we turn loose a few personal fragments of last night's "fight."

Max Baer is not through. He's just disgusted. Tied up by managers and working for a bunch of parasites he has said he's ready to chuck it all right now. He won't though, because despite his clowning and his self-satisfied ways he's been a popular champion and popular champions always try comebacks.

The Baer-backers will be rationalizing for weeks to come about Maxie's failure last night but no one can deny that he refused to take Braddock seriously, even when the plodding Irishman was working so hard in the ring. Max's mother predicts Max will win the title back. So do a lot of others. Others think Max's brother, Buddy, may go on to win—but we don't. Buddy is not the stuff of which champions are made. As a champion he would be as stuffy as Primo Camera and lend about as much grace to the game as that big guy did.

Joe Louis is not ready and wouldn't get the chance if he were. Ditto for Da Preem. Max Baer, while unimpressive in losing his crown, remains the No. 1 contender no matter how loudly the drums are beaten for other pretenders to the throne. Probably no title fight ever resembled this one. Clean, almost to the point of boredom, there was not a single knockdown and very little blood was shed. But the most remarkable fact of all was the complete lack of alibi from the ex-champ's camp and the genuine warm-heartedness of Max's praise for Braddock.

One feels, somehow, that Baer was really glad to lose that crown.

159 SEEKING GOLF TITLE

By PAUL MICKELSON

SOUTH BEND, Ind., Friday, June 14. (AP)—In this sporting locale, where dreams are usually dreamed of Notre Dame's conquests on the football field, some 159 golfers brought the crowd out to the fairways today to watch them open a 72-hole battle with par for the Western Open championship, one of the oldest prizes of the ancient game.

On the basis of reputations, the "four horsemen" of the tournament were "Light Horse" Harry Cooper of Chicago, the little man who won the title at Peoria last year by clipping 25 strokes from par; Walter Hagen of Detroit, the veteran maestro, who has won the western crown no less than five times; Jimmy Thomson, the Long Beach, Calif., "Siege Gun," who lost the national open title by two heart-breaking putts and golf's "Silver Fox" Tommy Armour of Chicago, himself the tournament scoring record holder with a total of 273 strokes.

DUSEK TO FACE JONES HERE

Ernie Dusek, the wildest of the four wrestling brothers from Omaha, Neb., today was signed to wrestle the secondary feature at the Orange County arena Monday night.

Dusek will meet the veteran hook-body scissor expert, Paul Jones of Dallas, in a one-fall, one-hour semi-final to the Jim Browning-Sandor Szabo main event.

Last week the fighting Dusek came within an ace of crushing the huge Man-Mountain Deen when they clashed in the main event at the Olympic Arena at Los Angeles.

Dusek is generally regarded as the most dangerous and vicious heavyweight on the Pacific Coast.

Helen Wills Moody Drops Net Match To Miss Stammers

LONDON, Friday, June 14. (AP)—Helen Wills Moody suffered the first defeat of her tennis comeback campaign today, bowing to Katherine Stammers, third ranking British star, 6-0, 6-4, in the semi-final round of the Kent championships.

Facing the sternest test of a campaign that had brought her eight successive victories in England, Mrs. Moody found herself overmatched by Miss Stammers, left-handed holder of the British hard court championship, who used her backhand to make openings for winning drives, and was helped no little by the fact that the Californian lacked her usual accuracy.

20-30 UPSET BY UNION

Union Oil—and Lloyd Litchner in particular—blanked the heretofore unbeaten 20-30's by a score of 2-0 to throw the Santa Ana City league softball race wide open among the Oilers, the Elks and the 20-30's at the bowl last night.

The victory could not be classified as a stunning upset, for Union Oil's Orange and Blue, the best-dressed team in the circuit, has been playing real baseball all season. A 1-0 shutout by the Elks represents the only flaw on the Oilers record.

Commercial Nationals Win Commercial National Bank, 1934 champions, clubbed their way to a 6-2 verdict over M. E. South's Seniors in an interesting preliminary featuring home runs by Rod Smiley and Maurice White of the Elks. Elwood Heard of the Methodists.

To enter the play-off series Union Oil must trim the M. E. South Seniors in a 7:30 o'clock game completing the regular schedule Monday night, but this looks as an easy task compared to their assignment last night.

Play-off dates, announced today by Justice Kenneth E. Morrison, president of the loop, pair the Elks and 20-30's in the second game Monday, and the winner will go into the bowl Thursday night against Union Oil, the Methodists' Seniors Monday.

The second-half schedule will open a week from Monday, with games originally slated for next week to be postponed until the end of the season.

OLERS KEEP NEVA; STARS PLAY HERE

Faced with the task of outsmarting Louie Neva and Huntington Beach Oilers for the first-half championship, Santa Ana's determined Stars continue their titular quest against the Anaheim Valencias in the bowl at 8 o'clock tonight.

Neva remained with Joe Rodgers' defending champions today as the result of a closed meeting of business managers called by President Walter Wentz in Garden Grove last night.

No Hard Feelings

Out of the session, which lasted until midnight but created no hard feelings, it was agreed that Huntington Beach had a right to acquire Neva, since the Oilers lived up to the five-player agreement by releasing four players—Frank Sabella, Pete Murnighan, Charles Zaby and George Murray. Huntington Beach was carrying eight players who had been affiliated with other National league clubs within the past three years, and was forced to drop three anyway. The Oilers released a fourth in order to take on Neva, the home-run hitter from Hollywood and Torrance.

Huntington Park of the Federal league applied for entrance in the National league. B. Williamson, the club's representative, was formed that Huntington Park may be added to the second-half schedule, provided another team can be secured to make the league an eight-club circuit.

One game ahead of Huntington Beach, Santa Ana can win the first-half title outright without another loss. But after tonight's brush with Anaheim come other stern tests with Olive here Tuesday, Westminster there Friday, Long Beach here June 25, Huntington Beach here June 28, and Anaheim there July 2. The Oilers can catch up with the Stars with a victory here two weeks from tonight provided both clubs win their other games.

Manager Vic Ruedy will not decide before game-time whether the towering "String" McDonald or Al Bushman will take the ride for Anaheim. Manager Bill Cole of Santa Ana will employ his usual lineup with Jimmy Coates on the mound.

THE CHAMP IS SLEEPY

JIMMY WILL FIGHT FOR GARDEN

By EDDIE BRIETZ

NEW YORK, Friday, June 14. (AP)—A long, lean, black-haired Irishman, tired as any man alive, lay stretched out on a bed today, trying hard to keep awake—the new heavyweight champion of the prize fight world, James J. Braddock.

There was a badly bruised rib aching in his left side. His nose was swollen. His left ear was plastered. He grinned automatically over all his wide, even, Irish face. But his eyes just wouldn't stay open. It was 3 o'clock in the morning.

Makes Pugilistic History

The crowd roared through his hotel suite, the usual crowd that greets a new champion. People who knew he would win, but for some reason never had got around to telling him until after he had come down the stretch, a 10-to-1 shot coming through to make pugilistic history.

In all that milling mob there was just one question: "What's the new champ go to do?"

All Braddock knew was that he wanted to sleep. He had to stick his fingers in his eyes to keep them open.

"It all right if I go to sleep?"

It wasn't, but finally the crowd relented. His wife, May, who came here from their home in Woodcliff, N. J., the moment the fight was over, sat there beside him.

"I'll take him away somewhere for a rest," she promised. Joe Gould, energetic title manager of the new champion, roared around the place.

"What are we going to do?" asked Joe. "Well, Madison Square Garden gave us our chance. We're sticking to the Garden. We've got a contract that says we've got to defend our title for the Garden in 1935, not until then. That's what we're going to do—defend the title for the Garden in 1935.

"In the meantime? We're going out to grab all the shekels there are loose for little Joe and Jimmy. We've got to prepare for the next flood and famine. Don't forget we been on relief. They don't catch us with nothing stowed away to take care of the next time."

'Knew We'd Win'

"All we got," said Gould, "is a lot of telegrams from guys all over the country saying they knew all along we'd win. We got telegrams from guys saying, 'Well, we've heard from a couple hundred people named Braddock we never knew existed but are ready to move right in right now.'"

Whereupon Gould staggered off to bed himself. A man doesn't become manager of a heavyweight champion every day in the week.

35,000 WILL SEE OWENS

By PAUL ZIMMERMAN

LOS ANGELES, Friday, June 14. (AP)—With the advance sales of tickets better than half of that of a year ago for the national collegiate championships, University of Southern California authorities predicted a crowd of more than 35,000 for the dual track and field meet here at Memorial coliseum with Ohio State Saturday.

Should the flying negro legs of Jesse Owens, Buckeye Negro star, attract more than this figure it will be the largest audience to see a track event since the Olympic games.

Invaders Confident

Coach Larry Snyder of the invaders figures on the basis of the scoring system agreed upon whereby only first place counts that five of his 13 men can pick up the necessary eight first places to win. Of these, Owens was expected to win the four he enters—the two sprint races, the low hurdles and the broad jump.

Dean Cromwell of the unbeaten Trojans, who recently captured the I. C. A. A. A. title, is resigned to his fate so far as Owens' events are concerned.

Concede Owens Victory

"We'll just let Jesse win those races," said Dean, "and try to take eight of the others. I don't see where we have a man who can beat him."

In spite of the close competition expected in the half mile, two mile and high jump, the interest still will center on Owens, who broke three world records and tied another recently in the Big Ten championship.

JIMMY BRADDOCK

FLYER OUTBOXES SANCHEZ TO TAKE RING VICTORY

Outsmarted from the start and kept at bay by a snapping left hand, Tommyhawk Jesse Sanchez, Westminster jumper, dropped a decision to Bad Boy Louie Flyer, Boyle Heights puncher, in the main event of last night's show at the Orange County Athletic club.

Flyer cuffed and slapped Sanchez at will, and the game Mexican didn't begin to catch up until the third round, when an aggressive flurry almost put him abreast of the visitor. Sanchez's right, boxing Flyer in the breeze, connected a few times as he rushed Flyer, giving him an edge in this round.

In the fourth, Flyer resumed the clever boxing tactics that had kept him from so much as feeling Sanchez's glove in the first two rounds, and went on to an easy victory.

Mandell Licks Benzor

Earl Mandell and Don Benzor, game Anaheim boy, provided the fastest bout of the evening, Mandell taking a decision for his tricky boxing. Mandell, another Boyle Heights lad, floored Benzor three times with right jabs to the bid-section, and Benzor was glad to take a nine-count each time. The bell saved him in the second after one of Mandell's terrific attacks on his stomach.

Benzor, trailing badly, came back fast in the last frame, and almost caught up, stunning the Jewish boy with wide-swinging rights and outspeeding him.

Paul Brown Tires

Paul Brown, Santa Ana youngster, tired in the closing minutes of a fast bout with Al Smith, "The New York Democrat," and lost the decision.

Chris Robinson, burly Los Angeles Negro, outslammed Art Hernandez of Fullerton, missing a thousand chances for a knock-out and battering his rival's nose badly.

Eddie Gill appeared to be battering Frankie Barrago, Santa Ana, until the local boy cut loose a long right to the button and the colored boy went down for the count. Both boys traded punches freely and should be rematched.

Tony Cayton, Garden Grove, landed his way to a third-round technical knockout over Eddie Garcia, a clever boy from Pico. Garcia was far too light for the clever Cayton, and went down often from sheer exhaustion. Cayton was a bit relentless and the match was a poor one despite Garcia's game stand.

Tonny Torres, Westminster, dropped a decision in the opener to Howard Anderson, Long Beach flash, in the opener.

POOR STRATEGY LICKS INDIANS

(By the Associated Press)
Earl McNeely's Sacramento Senators today thanked the strategy of Ed Pickrell, Seattle hurler, for their 5 to 2 win over the Tribe.

With the count tied at two-all, and one man on, the Indian moundsman purposely walked Henry Steinbaker and Harry Rosenberg, Sacramento's two sluggers, to get at Rookie Max West. The youngster laced out a long double to clear the bases.

Pitcher Jimmy Tobin was the whole show at Emeryville as he pitched and hit Oakland to a 4 to 3 victory over Hollywood.

The San Francisco Seals made it three straight over their home town rivals, the Missions, when they took yesterday's game 9 to 6. Joe di Maggio proved the spark plug for the Seals by clouting two homers. Los Angeles and Portland did not play.

MORE ABOUT GOLF TITLE

threat for the title, which never has left America came the entire Japanese touring professional team.

Other stars of the first dimension entered included Johnny Rowland, Milwaukee, Ky. Laffoon, Chicago, who lost the title to Cooper in two-par shelling overtimes last year; Harold "Jug" McSpaden, Kansas City; Willie Goggin, Los Angeles; "Wild Bill" Mohlhorn, Louisville, and Fay Coleman of Culver City, Calif.

The championship layout was the Chain O' Lakes course of the South Bend Country club, a course skirting around Willow woods and water for more than 6000 yards with a par at 36-35-71.

MORE ABOUT BRADDOCK

more and looking for the main target.

The champion had taken the two previous rounds. He had blood trickling from Braddock's nose, which had been cut in the sixth. Baer was on top of Braddock near the latter's corner when he let fly a low punch, just before the bell.

The crowd jeered vociferously and Joe Gould, Jimmy's manager, ran halfway across the ring to yell a warning at Baer. A policeman leaped in to help restore order, but it wasn't necessary. The referee took the round away from Baer, and the champion's chances were behind him.

Braddock took everything Baer could muster in the last three rounds. The challenger not only countered briskly to the head and body in every exchange, but tried hard for a knockout himself. Once he grazed Baer's chin with a looping right hand that had dynamite in it. Max finished strong, with a shade the better of the last two rounds, but he was too far behind on points to make up for lost ground.

Seven Rounds Each

On the Associated Press score sheet each man was credited with seven rounds, with one even, but Braddock's margin was more pronounced in the rounds he won.

At no stage did Baer resemble the "killer" who knocked out Max Schmeling two years ago and who smashed Primo Carnera to defeat in the same battle pit last year.

Regardless of how much he was handicapped by damaged hands, Baer undoubtedly paid the penalty for underestimating his challenger beforehand and wasting too much time during the fight in gesturing or clowning. He waved at ring-siders, thumbed his nose at jeering spectators but neglected to pay enough attention to his challenger.

RUNS TO MOTHER

DENVER (P)—Every day is mother's day to Kenneth Smith, 7. He and three others of a family of 11 were placed in a state home in an effort to assist the family. For weeks after entering the home he ran away on an average of once every other day—once in a blinding snowstorm. Each time he trudged six miles to be with his mother.

BRITAIN AND GERMANY AGREE TO TREATY ON NAVY STRENGTH

HITLER ASSENT GIVEN TODAY TO ENGLAND

Pact Restricts German Navy; May Be Death Of Arms Race

LONDON, Friday, June 14. (AP)—High British sources today confirmed the fact of an agreement between Great Britain and Germany on the terms of a bilateral treaty restricting the German navy to 35 per cent of the under-age British naval strength.

Reichsfuehrer Hitler's assent to the terms was formally communicated this morning to Sir Samuel Hoare, British foreign secretary, at a conference with Joachim von Ribbentrop, Hitler's armaments expert.

Some naval authorities asserted that under these terms the German navy would be actually only 17 per cent the size of the British navy at present in view of the great proportion of the British fleet composed of over-age vessels.

It was understood, however, that the treaty contemplates the replacement of Great Britain's over-age vessels within the limits prescribed by the Washington and London naval treaties.

Officials regarded the pact as sounding the death of a prospective sea armaments race by definitely putting an end to secret building.

EROSION CAMP TO BE PICKED

Definite steps toward establishing an Orange county demonstration area for control of soil erosion will be taken Monday. Two engineers from the soil conservation service will be here that afternoon to check up on possible locations for the Civilian Conservation Corps camp whose members will carry on the erosion control project on a 25,000-acre plot surrounding El Toro.

The camp will consist of 225 men, whose entire time will be devoted to the project. It will be an entirely new CCC unit.

The officials coming to inspect locations are Harry E. Reddick, regional director of the California soil conservation service, and Paul B. Dickey, engineer, according to Farm Advisor Harold Wahlberg.

Many acres of good soil in Orange county have been cut away by erosion because of lack of protection, and the project here would demonstrate how such loss can be prevented, so that farmers could adopt similar measures on their own properties, explained Mr. Wahlberg.

WAR THREAT LOOMS for BLACK EMPIRE

Harar is capital of Ethiopia's province of Ogaden, considered in the center of the "danger zone" should the war clouds on the "Black Empire's" horizon burst into a storm of frenzied fighting. Harar is almost a promiscuous city as may be noted from this view of one of the city's streets. It is, however, protected by walls and is in the area to which Emperor Haile Selassie I is now sending his troops against the possibility of trouble with Italy when the rainy season ends in September.

WOMEN AWAIT FRANCE SENDS COOK SCHOOL DEBT DEFAULT

Announcement of the outstanding prizes being awarded at the all-electric cooking school to be held in Veterans hall, June 19, 20 and 21, under sponsorship of Hotpoint and The Journal has stimulated interest in the event for hundreds of Santa Ana home-makers.

Attendance at the cooking lectures to be given by Mrs. Ruth Erb is the only requirement for eligibility to receive the prizes, the sponsors announce.

Bringing to the gathering unusual angles in food science, Mrs. Erb will discuss and demonstrate economical preparation of delicious dishes at each meeting.

Time-saving and economical advantages of electric cookery will be discussed by Mrs. Erb, who will answer questions about kitchen administration and the use of modern electric appliances in cooking wholesome food for the family.

SICK, BUT NOT SERIOUSLY

County Disease Cases Grow

Orange county has been sick this year—but not seriously. For most of its many cases of communicable diseases have been of a minor nature, according to Dr. K. H. Sutherland, county health officer.

Statistics compiled in the county health department reveal that during the first five months of 1935 there were 5276 cases of communicable disease reported in Orange county, which is 1528 more cases than were reported for the entire year of 1934. In that year there were 3748 cases reported.

Dr. Sutherland said measles topped this year's list with 3,250 cases reported. Chickenpox was next with 610 cases, and there were 332 cases of whooping cough. The other 1104 cases were divided among 21 other communicable diseases.

Blame on Weather
"Blame it on the weather and a nation-wide epidemic," Dr. Sutherland said in giving the reason for the unusual leap in the number of communicable diseases here. He said Orange county and the nation has had more cases of measles during 1934-35 than at any time in the past 19 years.

The weather has played a large part in the spread of measles, according to Dr. Sutherland, making people more susceptible to respiratory diseases, of which measles is one.

GRAND PRIZES ARE AWARDED

Concluding the series of card parties under direction of Calumet camp and auxiliary, Spanish War Veterans, grand prizes were awarded winners at the party held Tuesday night in the K. of C. hall.

Those winning were Mrs. Bess Moberly, Mrs. Maude Brown, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Messenger, Charles Winter and Jack Hess.

Preceding the card play, a short court scene was presented by Frank P. Rowe, Charles Dixon, Adolph Erickson, Al Dresser and Vernon Area. Refreshments were served.

According to Dr. Sutherland, making people more susceptible to respiratory diseases, of which measles is one.

With the unprecedented increase in the number of communicable diseases, an unusually heavy burden was placed on the health department, he stated. To combat these diseases it was necessary for doctors and nurses of the department to make 19,703 visits to homes during the first five months of this year.

Staff Kept Busy
Doctors and nurses not only have to call on the actual cases of communicable diseases reported to the department, but they also must follow up contacts and persons suspected of having been contacted by the infected persons. To keep up with the work it has been necessary to add one nurse to the staff.

In addition to exerting every power to control the spread of communicable diseases in the county, the health department has maintained its regular program, including the child welfare program of which pre-school clinics are a feature. The department also has carried on its immunization vaccination program and routine sanitary inspections, said Dr. Sutherland.

JAYSEE GRADS HERE GIVEN DIPLOMAS

Featured by the presentation of Robert L. Brown prizes to Jane Crawford and Robert Tannenbaum, most outstanding man and woman in the graduating class, and the Beta Gamma award to Glenn Bishop, student who has accomplished most in extra-curricular activities, the nineteenth annual Santa Ana Junior college commencement exercises were held in Birch park yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock with the Rev. James William Fifield jr., D. D., speaking on "The Road to Happiness."

The three students with the highest grade point ratios in the graduating class were George Robertson, Associated Student body president, who attained a grade point ratio of 2.4, and John Henderson and Robert Tannenbaum, who tied for second with a ratio of 2.3.

Honor Scholarship Students
Other students honored for having attained distinction in their junior college work included 10 students who have been made life members of Alpha Gamma Sigma, California jaysee honor society. These students have complied with the requirement of having been in Alpha Gamma Sigma three out of their four semesters in jaysee. To be awarded membership in Alpha Gamma Sigma, a student must have made a "B" average or better in no less than 15 units of college work.

Students on this list included Gordon Beisel, Glenn Bishop, Eleanor Bowyer, John Henderson, Claude Owens, George Robertson, Marilee Rankin, Freda Sawtelle, Robert Tannenbaum and Eleanor Walter.

Stating that "not a member of the graduating class can travel the road to happiness without God," the Rev. Dr. Fifield spoke of the spiritual nations throughout the world are making to live without God. All of them, he said were unsuccessful.

'Good Companion'
The speaker continued by saying that one of the most important things to insure a road of happiness was a good traveling companion. The speaker recommended the teachings of Christ as the best code of ethics that one could follow for happiness.

He concluded by saying that he did not speak for any specific creed but that one should follow "what ministers call the way of the cross."

Other portions of the program included the overture, "Le Domino Noir," by Auber; the men's chorus, singing "Now Sleeps the Crimson Petal," by Anne Adams; presentation of the graduating class, McKee Fisk, jaysee dean; conferring of titles of Associate of Arts, awarding of certificates of secretarial practice, and announcements of honors by President D. K. Hammond; the women's chorus singing "Clouds," by Charles-Louis; the benediction by the Rev. George Acheson Warner, D. D., and orchestra playing "Blossom Time," by Schubert.

LEGION ELECTS DELEGATES

Delegates to the state American Legion convention to be held in August at Fresno were elected at the meeting of the local post last night in Veterans' hall.

Bert Casteix, commander, and A. C. Eklund, adjutant, will automatically represent the post. Those elected included Charles D. Swanner, Dr. Fred Earel, Allison Honer, Charles D. Van Wyk, C. M. Featherly, Jack Hill, and George Kellogg. Alternates will be E. S. Sullivan, C. Neer, William Wieland, Ed Struble, A. J. Anderson, M. Dodder and Philip Telef.

The delegates were instructed to vote for Dick Welch of Riverside as department commander unless the candidate withdrew in favor of some other nominee.

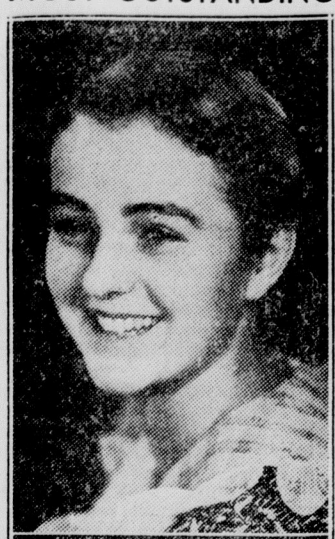

"I'm glad for your sake," Puffy says, "that I won, I like Plenty Grand, and the racing is fun."

"Tut tut," says the man. "You shall have a reward."

He pulls out his pocketbook, tied with a cord.

MOST OUTSTANDING

These three are the outstanding graduates of Santa Ana Junior college, Jane Crawford and Robert Tannenbaum (center) having been awarded the Robert L. Brown prizes for the most outstanding students, and Glenn Bishop (below) having been awarded the Beta Gamma prize for being the most outstanding student in extra-curricular activities. The awards were made yesterday afternoon at the junior college commencement held at Birch park.

PARROT RECITES POETRY

Ault Bird Goes Shopping, Too

"I don't smoke and I don't chew, And I don't like the girls that do."

Dick Ault is at least one masculine Santa Anan who still voices that sentiment—but then, Dick doesn't really count, for he's only a green Panama parrot with yellow spots.

Perched comfortably on the right shoulder of his owner, Mrs. Ella Ault, Dick rides downtown daily and supervises her shopping. "Parrots are like dogs, they center their trust and affection on one person," Mrs. Ault says. "Dick has definite likes and dislikes, too. He'll shake hands with some folks he meets, and others he only looks at, sideways, unblinkingly and without much interest."

Since he was purchased seven and a half years ago, a six-month-old bird, Dick has lived at 702 West Third street, the Ault home. He knows and talks to the neighborhood children, and calls Mrs. Ault and her son, Carroll, by their first names.

Another son, Alfred, now in Washington, D. C., helped to teach the parrot his present vocabulary of more than 100 words, a few songs and several poems.

UNIFIED SERVICE PLAN UP TONIGHT
Leaders and workers of all departments of the First Christian church will assemble tonight at 7:30 o'clock in the educational building for an open forum on the unified morning service plan.

Four months ago a commission was appointed from the official board of the church to make a study of the program. Speakers from churches that have introduced the plan have addressed noon-day meetings and Bible school gatherings.

The plan proposes a morning worship from 9:30 to 10:40 o'clock in the church auditorium for junior, junior high, high, young people's, and adults' classes, with class projects and study following until 11:30 o'clock. Primary and junior departments will have separate sessions.

ELKS WILL PAY FLAG TRIBUTE TONIGHT

Tribute will be paid the "stars and stripes" at 8 o'clock tonight when veterans' organizations assemble as guests of Elks lodge No. 794 of Santa Ana and No. 1475 of Orange at a program given in observance of national Flag Day at the Santa Ana Elks lodge hall.

Gordon Richmond, Orange attorney, will deliver the patriotic address, and L. W. Blodgett, Santa Ana attorney, will give a tribute to the flag.

Foster's "The Americans Come" will be sung by A. J. Garaway, and Leland Auer's orchestra will play two appropriate selections. The Rev. O. Scott McFarland of Santa Ana will give the invocation and benediction. Liberty bell exercises will be demonstrated by officers of the lodge.

Cohan's "It's a Grand Old Flag" and Sousa's "Stars and Stripes Forever" will be sung by the Elks double quartet, and the audience will open by singing "The Star Spangled Banner" and close with "America."

Don G. Jerome, exalted ruler, will lead the introductory exercises.

Former Years Recalled By Ebell Past Presidents At Annual Tea

New Officers Chosen By Group

F. E. Coulter Home Scene of Traditional Party; 14 Leaders Present

Fourteen of the 20 women who have served Santa Ana Valley Ebell society as its presidents since its organization in 1894 met for a traditional early summer tea and the annual business session of their past presidents' association yesterday afternoon in the home of Mrs. F. E. Coulter, 826 South Ross street, as guests of Mrs. Coulter and Mrs. Terry E. Stephenson.

Mrs. Coulter's home, always beautifully appointed, was especially colorful with bowls of snapdragons and other flowers culled from her garden. As retiring president of the association, she conducted a preliminary business session in which Mrs. Robert G. Tuthill was elected new president; Mrs. Paul Bailey, vice president; Mrs. C. F. Crose, treasurer, and Mrs. C. V. Davis, secretary for the coming year.

The remainder of the afternoon was spent in pleasant reminiscences of former days. The group will have its next quarterly meeting in October.

In the tea hour, Mrs. Stephenson presided at a long table laid with exquisite hand-made lace which Mrs. Coulter purchased in Italy. Centerpiece was a heavily-carved bowl of crimson snapdragons flanked by slender silver birds. Odd-shaped sandwiches, cakes, mints and salted nuts, and jasmine tea were served.

Others present for the occasion were Mesdames J. R. Medlock, Victor Montgomery, S. M. Davis, Edward M. Nealey, A. J. Cruickshank, Sam W. Nau, C. F. Crose, J. E. Gowen, John Clarkson, S. W. Stanley, Robert G. Tuthill and Paul Bailey.

Mrs. J. L. McBride, Mrs. Clyde Bach and Mrs. W. W. Kays were hostesses for the buffet luncheon. A pleasantly informal afternoon was spent by the clubwomen.

Others present were Miss Ida Nay and Mesdames Charles C. Rothers, a guest, and Lena Jullick Hewitt, W. E. Watkins, M. C. Williams, O. H. Umberham, J. F. Richards, C. A. Westgate, F. E. Moore, G. W. Canter and Emmett Elliott.

Bride-Elect Honored At Shower

One of the most cleverly planned parties of the season was given last evening by Miss Margaret Cotant, at her home in Tustin, complimenting Miss Evelyn Metzgar, daughter of the Joseph H. Metzgars and bride-elect of Lawrence Minge of Anaheim. Miss Cotant is to be a bridesmaid at Miss Metzgar's wedding June 22 in the Episcopal Church of the Messiah.

The early part of the evening was spent in playing bridge. Miss Margaret Rust, who with Miss Eleanor Metzgar, sister of the honoree, assisted Miss Cotant in the hostess preparations, received a bridge prize, as did also Miss Ruth Hillyard.

In the dessert hour, the hostess centered each of the four card tables with a fluffy white crepe paper chrysanthemum tipped with gold stamens and centered with a tall ivory taper. Tiny nutshells were made of white crepe paper and cellophane with heart-shaped handles tied with sprigs of lilies of the valley. Molded flowerbaskets iced with tulle bows on their candy handles were served with pastel cakes, nuts and mints.

Just before the dessert was served, the hostess surprised Miss Metzgar by presenting her with a number of prettily-wrapped miscellaneous shower gifts from the other guests.

Among the gifts were two Florence Spode dinner plates to add to Miss Metzgar's new set, and from Miss Cotant and her mother, Mrs. A. L. Cotant, who also assisted in the hostessing, the honoree received six goblets in sparkling rock crystal.

The occasion was especially pleasant since it provided a reunion for a number of young women who had been together infrequently since their school days.

Other invited guests were Mrs. Joseph H. Metzgar, Mrs. Horace Scott, Mrs. Louise Van Dien Webster, Mrs. Lyle Mitchell, Mrs. Russell Rowland, Miss Helen Glancy and Misses Mary and Marian Bruner of Santa Ana, Mrs. Harry Baade of Pomona, Misses Murie Smith, Elaine Smith and Aural Bauer of Orange and Mrs. Clarence Campbell (Mollie Mosher) of Seattle.

After the guests had assembled and the honoree unwrapped her numerous gifts, games were played. Later, each child's head was crowned with a yellow crepe paper party cap, and a march to the dining room was marked by the singing of "Happy Birthday to You."

The dining table was centered by a large white-iced angelfood cake lettered in yellow with the honoree's name. Five tiny yellow tapers burned brightly, as did taller candles in crystal bases. Yellow and white ices were served. Each guest received a yellow-frosted doll as a souvenir.

MELLON'S KIN FINDS PEACE AS 'HERMIT'

By MARREN GRAHAM

PITTSBURGH, Friday, June 14. —Andrew W. Mellon's "poor cousin" hopes his wealthy kinsman will win the income tax suit in which the government charges fraud and seeks $3,089,000.

The kindly old man—William Andrew Mellon—passed in his "spring cleaning" of the back-alley abode in which he has made his home for 17 years and said:

"I have found my own peace and happiness in obscurity, but I hope Andy wins his suit."

Had No Coal

The "poor cousin" is 68 years old and the son of the only brother of the father of the noted banker.

He lived virtually unknown in the downtown area which is the heart of the giant financial empire developed by his "rich cousin" until a relief investigator found him without coal almost a year ago.

It developed the former secretary of the treasury himself had known of William's presence only since the death of the late R. B. Mellon, brother of Andrew, in 1933, but that the banker's efforts to induce the "poor cousin" to move to a better home had been futile.

"As soon as Andy learned I was here he wanted me to permit him to provide me a place to live," said William, "but I like it here and would not consent."

"I work, dream, read and think. What more could a man want?"

Is Writing Genealogy

Shortly after the "poor cousin" was found he disclosed he was writing a genealogy of the Mellon family and now, after months of work, he says considerable progress has been made.

The former secretary of the treasury is aware the book is being prepared, William says, and, in fact, the millionaire banker presented the "poor cousin" with the typewriter on which he is painstakingly writing the volume.

STEINMETZ IS GIVEN TERM

NEW YORK, Friday, June 14. —Joseph Lieb Steinmetz, 22-year-old bible student, convicted of manslaughter in the slaying of his young bride when he found her partially dressed in the room of a drunken priest, was sentenced today to eight to 16 years imprisonment by General Sessions Judge Charles Nott.

The youth was not tried for the slaying of the priest, the Rev. John J. Leonard, chaplain at the Morris Hall Home for the Aged, Lawrenceville, N. J., who was shot to death at the same time. The state has indicated it will not attempt to convict him in the latter death.

The shooting occurred in the Knights of Columbus hotel last November 26. Steinmetz testified he entered the priest's room and found his bride and the cleric, partially dressed, kissing. He said he did not remember the shooting.

TONIGHT'S PROGRAMS

By HOMER CANFIELD

When two such grand comedienne as Beatrice Lillie and Fanny Brice get together the net result is bound to be buffoonery as only the experts know it. And those interested should dial KFI-NBC at 5 o'clock. Miss Brice, like Auntie Bea, has something of a talent for burlesque characterizations. She first came into prominence as a protégé of the late Florenz Ziegfeld and has been one of America's comedy favorites for a quarter of a century. The broadcast will mark her return to the airwaves after an absence of several months. In the meantime she's been adding laurels to an already impressive Broadway record.

Warren Hull, en route to Hollywood for movie work, will be replaced by Fred Uhl as the program's emcee. Lee Perrin's orchestra, the Cavaliers quartet, "Mildred" Wyatt, and Arline Francis, Lady Reed's foil, will be on hand for the proceedings.

Phil Baker and his sponsor have not renewed contracts. July 26 will be his last show. He'll then pack his accordion and journey west for picture making.

Baker's broadcast follows the Lillie-Brice offering, a tough spot for any comedian.

Margaret Sullivan and Randolph Scott are Loella Parsons' guests on "Hollywood Hotel."

KHJ, 5 to 6 o'clock. If memory serves us rightly this will be their microphone debut.

For the musical highlight, Raymond Paige has prepared a group of Viennese numbers.

Concerning Paige, make plans to hear him capture musically "The Spirit of Hollywood" in a program to be aired coast-to-coast Sunday night at 7 o'clock. KHJ. The sixty-piece orchestra will respond to his talented baton.
